
THE MESA

1951

The Mesa

"And there they stand--supported and guided by the hand of God--ready for the challenge of the future."

As we journey through the pages of this yearbook the pictorial pageant herein presented will portray to us some living examples, molded and shaped by the hands of members of the faculty, and by the hands of the students themselves, in a dedicated effort to prepare us for that challenge of the future.

FREDERICKSBURG HIGH SCHOOL

Fredericksburg, Texas

Staff members wish everyone a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Two yearbook workers Shirley Treibs and Patsy Heimann are working on the band pages.

L. TO R.: Emma Jane Klaerner, Joyce Grona, co-editors of Campus Comet; Kitty Smith, layout editor; Sammie Sembritzky, activities editor, contributed much to the yearbook.

Mesa Staff

Susie Bartholmae and Barbara Schmidt, co-editors of the Mesa, are discussing plans for the future yearbook with their sponsor, Mrs. Rowntree.

Busy members of the staff are looking over some of their news articles in the two local papers.

School Board seated (L. TO R.): Arthur Kowert, Vice-Pres.; W.H. Osbourn, Pres.; Tyrus Cox, Sec. STANDING: Lawrence Hartman, Max Schneider, Victor Nixon, and Henry Schmidt. These members have always had a hand in the progress of FHS.

School Nurse and School Secretaries

The nimble fingers, alert minds, and friendly ways of these three persons provide much support for the FHS Educational System.

Seated at the typewriter, Mrs. Vera Kneese, secretary to the Supt., Standing, Mrs. Ruby Burgess, secretary and Mrs. Frances Borchers, school nurse.

Superintendent

Our Superintendent, Mr. Fred M. Thompson, uses his able hands to guide and direct both youth and adults alike in school and community affairs with his dedicated efforts.

Pictured here, he is offering his advice to one of the many civic organizations to which he belongs.

Principal

Of all the people who help plan and build the lives of the students at F.H.S., Mr. W.C. Westerfeldt, our principal, is one of the foremost who contributes to the growth and success of both the school and the students. His interest and administrative ability is of lasting value to our future success.

Freshman Sponsors

These sponsors discuss advice and guidance that can be given to the Freshmen who are starting the journey that will lead them to meet the challenges of the future.

Sophomore Sponsors

Scanning an issue of a current magazine, these sponsors realize that an alertness about current events is an ever important factor in preparing their students for what lies ahead.

Senior Sponsors

READING LEFT TO RIGHT: Mrs. May Gold, Commercial; Miss Stella Jung, Science and Foreign Language; Mrs. Mildred Rowntree, English and Journalism; and Mr. Logan Templeton, Math.

These teachers are lending a hand in making plans for a possible senior trip. They have dedicated their efforts in preparing their students and are channeling their thoughts to the betterment of the future.

Junior Sponsors

These sponsors have a heavy job on their hands in discussing plans for the Junior-Senior Prom. Their guidance will mean the difference between success and failure in many of their students' lives.

Coaches

These coaches have helped to guide many FHS students to the various honors they have received. They have also been responsible for our developing mentally as well as physically, and through their unherald efforts, we learn to lose as well as to win.

Ag. and Band

Always ready to lend a helping hand are these three capable faculty members. Their advice and understanding have helped many students meet the future successfully.

The Freshmen have just begun an important phase of their life's work. They are building with simple blocks before launching forth with the more complicated tools of learning.

Freshman Class Favorites

Robert Petermann and Mary Lou Bartholmae, Freshman Class Favorites, were chosen by their fellow classmates on the basis of their outstanding ways and friendly dispositions.

Freshman Class Officers

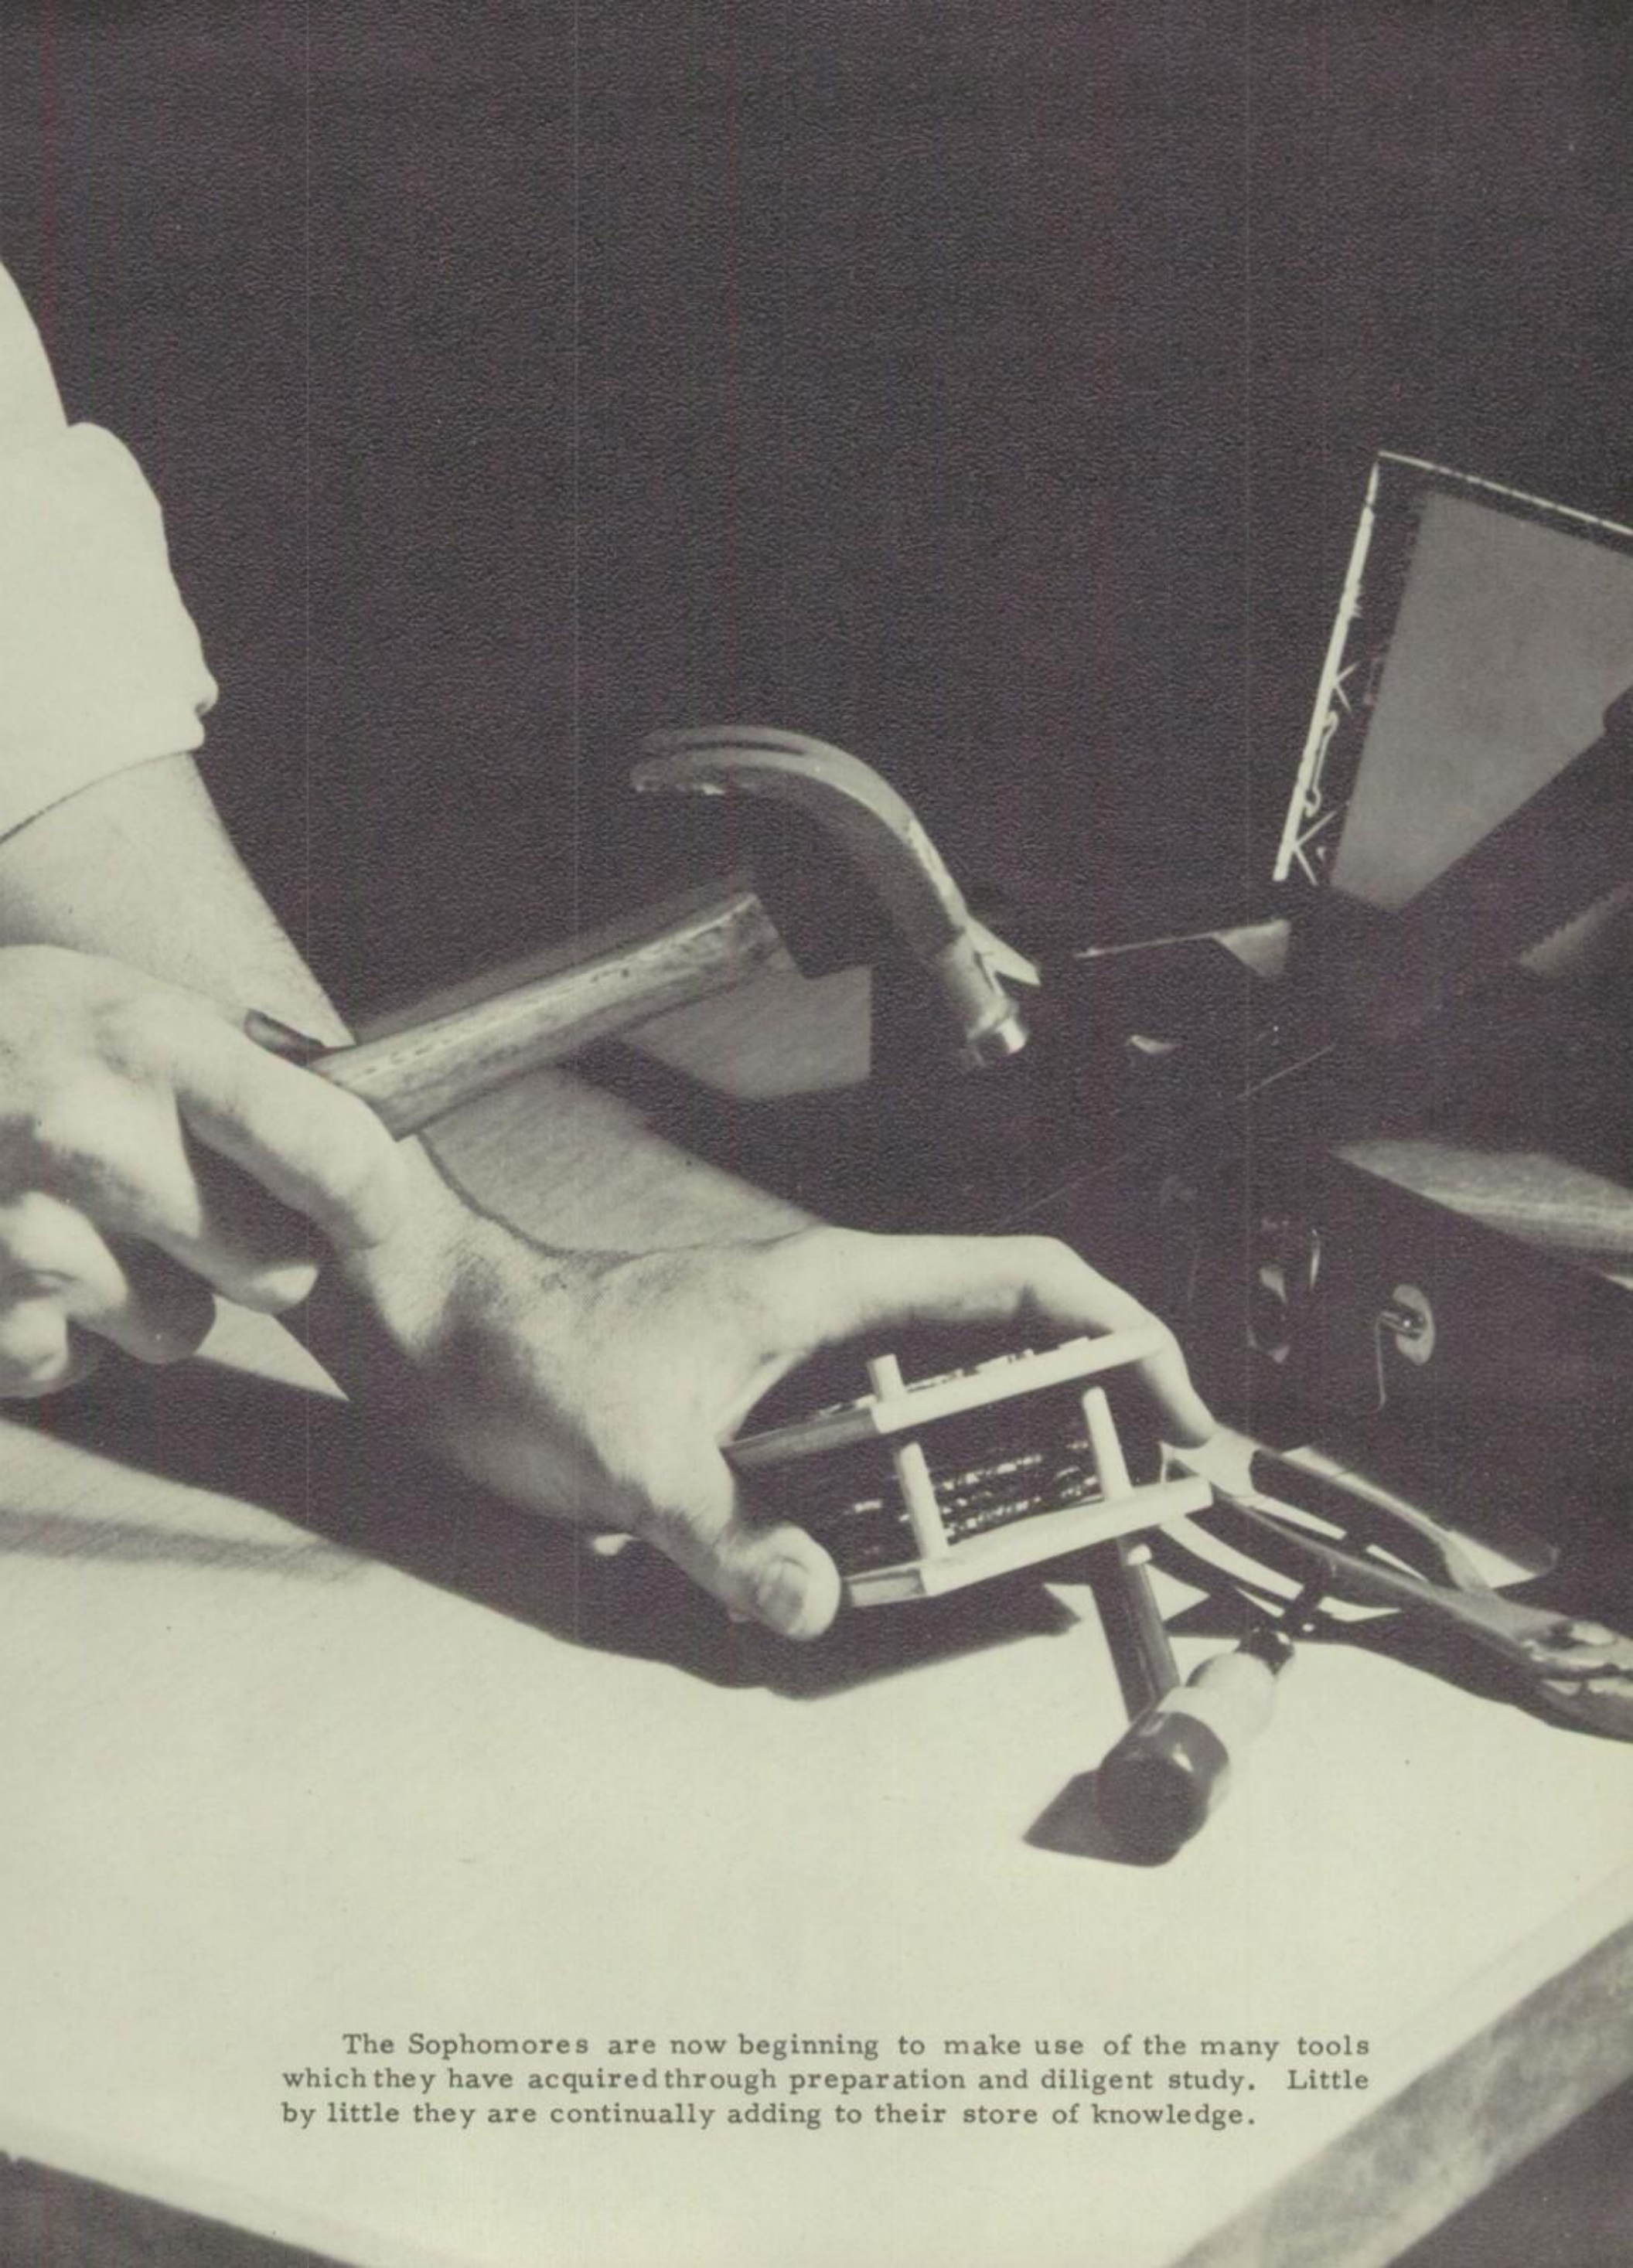
Freshmen Welcomed to F.H.S.

A large Freshman class entered FHS with a bang! They were given a friendly welcome in the form of an initiation and a party by the upper classmen.



The Sophomores are now beginning to make use of the many tools which they have acquired through preparation and diligent study. Little by little they are continually adding to their store of knowledge.

Sophomore Class Favorites

Elizabeth Sieckmann and E. W. Hallford, because of their pleasing personalities, were particularly favored and admired.

Showing good qualities of leadership, these officers have directed the Sophomore Class through the past year.

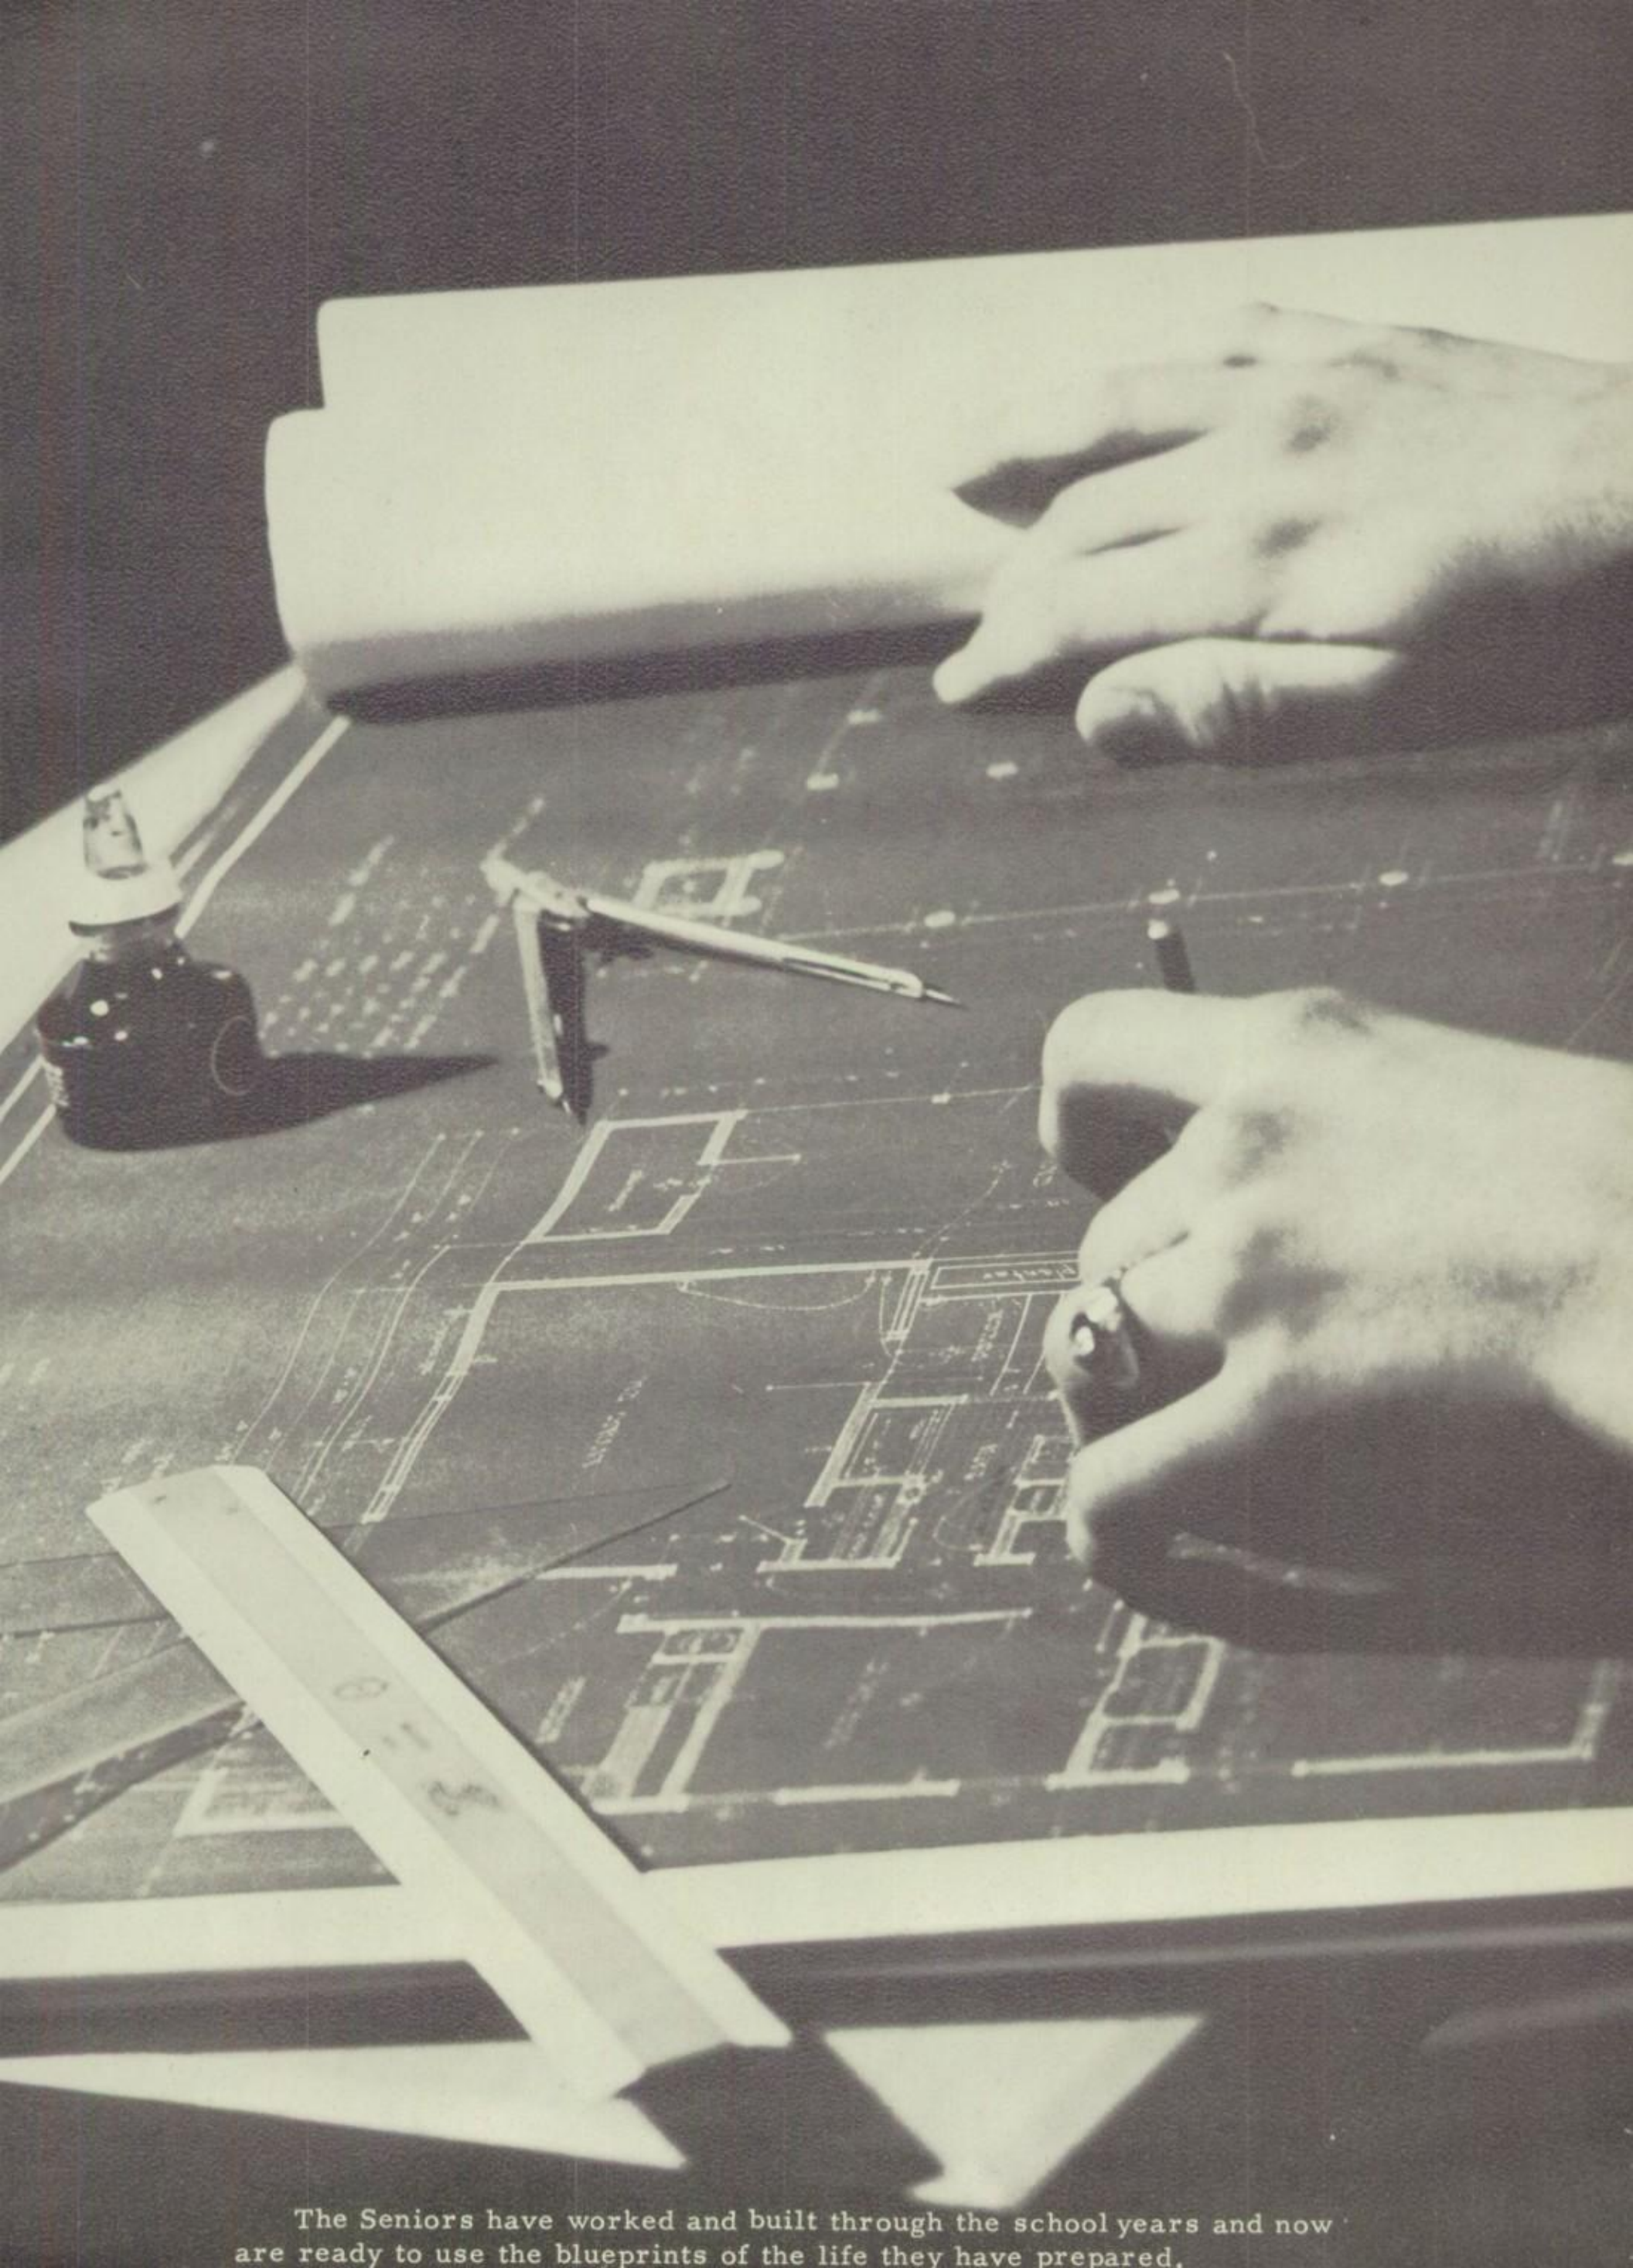
Annette Dolezal and Patsy Kuennemann fix hearts for Sweetheart Party.

Juniors have regular TGIF Club meeting.

Mary and Skipper love a parade.

Jewel and Judy get trapped in mud.



The Seniors have worked and built through the school years and now are ready to use the blueprints of the life they have prepared.

Senior Favorites

LEFT TO RIGHT, Alton Herbort, Dalton Herbort, and Colleen Lewis.

The sparkling personalities of our senior class favorites have done much to lighten and brighten our days here at FHS. They were wonderful and we'll never forget them.

Senior Class Officers

Much responsibiltiy was placed in our hands, and under the leadership of our Senior Class Officers, it was handled well.

The games we have entered in have not been primarily for fun, but an investment in the building of strength, character, and sportsmanship, preparing us for the day we will have to think quickly, act quickly, and judge the results.

Coach Johanson did a splendid job in bringing the team to second place in District 19AA.

Standing with the referees are the Hillbilly Co-Captains Frank Neffendorf and Freddy Petmecky. Their help did much in leading our team to a successful season.

So Long

It has been our privilege and pleasure to know the faculty and be a part of every phase of school life.

As we face the future, we are all encouraged by this parting thought: Fear not therefore; for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. - Matthew 10-26
